

COMPLETE STAFFING SOLUTIONS FOR INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

Epoch Universal was founded on providing productive, well designed, comprehensive solutions to companies throughout the country. In order to do this, we have assembled a highly skilled team with advanced expertise. Our resources can be found throughout the United States through full-time and contract positions. We continue to surpass our competition by promptly identifying and delivering candidates with exceptional skill sets.

Unlike your typical staffing firms, Epoch Universal uses the same internal vetting process with each candidate we submit. This helps determine the candidates' competency and technical quality prior to putting them through your company's internal process.

We pride ourselves on providing a strategic and analytical approach with your search, identifying candidates that you can't pass up interviewing. It's not about the size of a database, it's about the quality of our process. We promise to build profiles with the ideal candidate from which we screen candidates off of.
